

FIND YOUR IDEAL TECHNOLOGY ROLE

Internship - Systems Engineer I – Flight Controls

Brno

Part-time

Engineering

Are you interested in Information Technologies? Then, we believe that we have a great internship for you! We are currently looking for motivated students to join our Honeywell Flight Controls. Your main responsibility will be involvement in FBW system design with focus on software architecture and platform including high level systems and software requirements definition, prototyping, simulation, and integration.

Skills you will need:

- You are a student of engineering degree of Aero, Electrical or Computer Engineering or Automation
- University Knowledge in system engineering – defining requirements, development, testing, verification
- University knowledge of MATLAB/Simulink/Stateflow environment
- Communicative knowledge of English B2

We offer:

- Being part of an established multicultural team with solid know-how in aerospace field
- Meal allowance.
- Professional development plans and further career opportunities.
- Expert leaders to support your professional development

Scan the QR Code to learn more or send us your CV:

Assel.Zhalgaspayeva@Honeywell.com

www.honeywell.com
www.careers.honeywell.com/emeagrad

Honeywell